Spots to Visit in Tokyo

Asakusa

Enjoy some shopping or strolling in the grounds of Senso-ji Temple, and around Nakamise and Kaminarimon Gate. Nakamise, with its row of stores selling small Japanese-style items and traditional sweets unchanged in centuries, is perfect for souvenir-hunting. Azumabashi Bridge is a popular spot for photographing the Tokyo Skytree®.

Ginza

Ginza is the shopping street that best represents Tokyo. Ranged side by side are luxury brand shops, department stores, and high-profile stores selling the very latest fashions. Enjoy shopping here all day long.

Harajuku

Stroll along Takeshita-dori and take in the interesting fashions, such as outfits inspired by favourite fictional characters or people dressed in hip-hop style. A big drawcard is the reasonably priced shopping, including ¥100 stores and cute sundry items and shoes.

Odaiaba

Take souvenir photos against the backdrop of the Rainbow Bridge, Tokyo's Statue of Liberty, Tokyo Tower, and other landmarks and enjoy gourmet dining and shopping in some of Japan's biggest entertainment and shopping malls.

Tokyo Camii

Here is one of Japan's largest mosques built in the beautiful Turkish Ottoman era style. A popular spot for Muslim visitors to Japan.

Halal Shops in Tokyo

Japan's halal shops offer halal-certified vacuum-packed foods, instant ramen noodles, and sweets. Any problems with food while you are travelling will be solved by a visit to a halal shop.

■ In front of Shin-Okubo Station on the JR Yamanote Line are a number of halal shops.

■ The Ameya-yokocho street market in Ueno where people hunt for bargains also has halal shops. With its various spices, condiments, and halal meats, this market is convenient for all your shopping needs.

Spots to Visit in Kansai

Shinsaibashi (Osaka)

Shinsaibashi, a bustling street thronged with people, is the most popular tourist spot in Osaka. One of the highly recommended activities in Shinsaibashi is the Dotonbori River mini-cruise, which takes around 20 minutes. On a night river cruise, the neon lights reflected in the water are particularly beautiful. It's a must do activity!

Kyoto

Kyoto, with its beautiful shrines, Buddhist temples, and streets unchanged for centuries, is the place to experience the traditional Japan. The most popular tourist spots are the Kiyomizu-dera Temple, Kinkaku-ji Temple (the Golden Pavilion), and the Fushimi Inari Shrine. You can be photographed in Japanese dress, or if you are lucky, you might glimpse a beautifully costumed apprentice maiko!

Halal Shops in Kansai

The Osaka Mosque contains halal shops. So when you call in to pray, you can also do some shopping.
